Standards Based Grading

Mr. Flood indicated that concerns have been brought forward by two Committee members, Mrs. Karabetsos and Mrs. Dahl, in regards to Standards Based Grading; therefore, he asked for the item to be added to the agenda.

Discussion took place pertaining to the following concerns that were shared:

x Grading is not consistent.

$\frac{3}{4}$  Some teachers are picking the best pieces of work the student had while other teachers are picking the worst pieces of work of students. Likewise, some teachers are inputting all of the assignments while other are inputting only a few assignments.

$\frac{3}{4}$  Some teachers are stating that student aren't allowed to get 4's until the fourth quarter.

x Parents are not getting enough information.

$\frac{3}{4}$  Parents cannot look at the assignments and know their child's grades.

$\frac{3}{4}$

Committee members discussed the use of a survey to gather input from Principals, teachers, and parents.

Mr. Flood withdrew his motion to forward a recommendation to the Board to end the implementation of the standards based grading at the end of the 2013-2014 school year and that the District return to the grading system used before standards based grading was implemented until Administration brings a proposal to the Board based on the findings of the Curriculum audit.

Administration indicated that they would conduct a survey and look into alternative grading methods, i.e. the use of standards based grading together with the use of letter grading, and return to the Committee in March with a report.
